MISSION

The mission of the Diocese of Lincoln is to draw people into the joyful and abundant life of Christ.
DIRECTOR OF STEWARDSHIP & DEVELOPMENT

ABOUT THE DIOCESE

The Diocese of Lincoln—located in Lincoln, Nebraska—is 25,000 square miles and includes everything south of the Platte River from the borders of Colorado to Iowa. The Diocese is comprised of 134 parishes, 25 elementary schools, and 6 high schools that serve approximately 97,000 Catholics.

The Diocese of Lincoln currently raises approximately $4 million dollars annually through the Charity and Stewardship Appeal and the Bishop’s Appeal for Vocations. We are nearing the completion of the successful Joy of the Gospel capital campaign held in 2015-2016, a $62 million dollar initiative to fund Catholic education, priestly formation, clergy retirement, new evangelization efforts and local parish projects.
