

International Recognition for Christian Stewardship Formation Application/Nomination Form

Deadline June 30 - Applicants must be an ICSC member in good standing

The International Catholic Stewardship Conference is pleased to announce a special recognition opportunity for parishes, dioceses and other Catholic institutions globally. In an effort to capture and share good practices in stewardship worldwide, we are inviting parishes, dioceses and Catholic institutions internationally to submit their ideas and experiences for a special certificate and recognition at the annual CSC Conference.

Goal: To highlight, celebrate and support the cultural diversity of parishes, dioceses and Catholic institutions around the world especially in their efforts to help form members in Christian stewardship through formation and stewardship in action leading to participants' lives to become a testimony to Jesus Christ in word and witness.

Biblical Principles for Consideration: Submit ideas and practices in any of the following areas:

- Gratitude for God's blessings
- Returning the "first fruits" of our blessings to God
- Everything belongs to God, we are his caretakers
- Hospitality-Stewards of Welcome
- Caretakers of our relationship with God, the earth, our talents in service, our treasure, our parish, etc.
