58th Annual ICSC Conference – Going Full Virtual

The 58th annual conference of the International Catholic Stewardship Council (ICSC), scheduled to take place in Anaheim, California September 27 to 30, will transition from a hybrid conference to a full virtual conference. It will take place September 28 to October 9, 2020.

After thoughtful consultation with ICSC leaders, strategic partners and major stakeholders within the ICSC community, the decision was made to transition the ICSC hybrid conference into a full virtual experience as it is believed that this is the best and safest course of action to protect the conference attendees and the broader community considering the evolving COVID-19 pandemic developments.

Quickly switching gears, ICSC is now fully immersed in creating a dynamic virtual conference. Virtual attendees can expect the same great content that was primed to be delivered in Anaheim, so stay tuned. This reimagined virtual experience is being crafted to offer multiple options for engagement.

Encompassing ten business days, participants will have a number of marvelous opportunities to continue their stewardship journey. It will provide an engaging, accessible, and inclusive platform to convene the global ICSC community, enabling it to network, learn, share knowledge, and advance the ministry of stewardship in dioceses and parishes — a purpose that is more important today than ever before.

The new virtual experience will also provide opportunities for participants to connect with strategic partners and exhibitors to discover new resources, products and solutions to their challenges.

Registration information is now open. Check out the ICSC website at www.catholicstewardship.com for emerging details.
