Christ's Call to Lead a Life of Prayer

Living our lives as disciples begins with the renewal of our hearts and minds, and a desire to grow closer to Our Lord through our life of prayer. The "Call to Pray" phase of our Call to Discipleship journey reminds us to take the opportunity to cultivate a deeper relationship with God in prayer. To learn more about the Christ's call to pray, go to the St. Alfred website at stalfredtaylor.org.

The Call to Serve

God calls us to serve far beyond anything we could ever imagine. We were put on earth to act as stewards of God's plan of salvation for the world. We weren't created just to consume the earth's resources. God uniquely designed each of us to make a difference with our lives. For Catholics, we serve most commonly in our parish community. Prayerfully reflect on where you are called to serve as a servant of Christ. To learn more about the Christ's call to serve, go to the St. Alfred website at stalfredtaylor.org.

The Call to Share

Our personal and family resources are ultimately gifts from a loving and compassionate God. How we manage these gifts and share them with God through our family of faith is a barometer of our commitment to faith. People who make a decision to give to God from their first fruits and not the leftovers find that their faith is deepened, and rather than find themselves lacking, they become even more enriched spiritually.
