

Catholic Stewardship in Uncertain Times:
Best Practices During COVID-19

WEBINAR

As many Catholic institutions seek guidance on how to proceed during this time of uncertainty, we want to support your important missions by offering practical advice and expertise on how best to move forward. In this webinar, designed specifically for diocesan and foundation officers, perspectives and proven strategies to navigate this challenging period were shared.

Attendees discussed:

- Key lessons from critical moments in the past.
- Unique implications of the current situation.
- Practical strategies and new innovations for continuing major donor stewardship, the annual appeal, planned giving efforts, and special events.

Speakers:

- Peter Hoskow, Principal & Managing Director, CCS
- Thomas Kissane, Principal & Managing Director, CCS
- James Kelley, Director of Development, Diocese of Charlotte, President emeritus, International Catholic Stewardship Council
- Michael Murphy, Executive Director, International Catholic Stewardship Council
