

Memorandum #6 from Jim Kelley to pastors of the Diocese of Charlotte

From: Kelley, Jim

Sent: Friday, April 3, 2020 8:36 AM

Subject: Development Office - Parish Support During This Crisis #6 - Bishop Jugis invites faithful to join him for Holy Week

Dear Monsignor/Father,

Last night, you should have received an email from Patricia Guilfoyle about Holy Week and Easter livestreams with Bishop Jugis as well as an attached guide. A printed copy of the guide is being mailed today to all registered households who receive the Catholic News Herald. We are grateful to Father Roux and Patricia Guilfoyle for all their work this week to put together this plan and materials. Please also know that the development office is having the an email sent this morning with attachments to over 57,000 emails. Note that is not 57,000 households as some households have multiple emails.

While the diocese is making use of social media during this crisis with websites, Facebook, YouTube and other social media, we are both mailing and emailing this information because mailing information to parishioners homes and sending information to personal email accounts is still the best way to get information to the most people most directly.

As we enter Holy Week, know how grateful we are that each of you listened to and responded to your call to be a priest. While we are grateful for you every day, we are particularly grateful during this most holy and special week of the year.

Jim