Conference Prayer

Gracious and loving God,

We gather in Your name,
to draw from a wellspring
of wisdom that will enrich
our lives and the lives
of those we love and serve.

Through this networking,
sharing of ideas and
discernment though,
lift us up!
Open our eyes!

Lead us into an encounter
with your Son,
on higher ground
where we will be drawn to
moments of epiphany,
deeper self-awareness
and profound grace.

In these times of uncertainty
and stress do not abandon us,
but pour out Your Spirit upon us
so that its power becomes our power.

Make us good stewards of what we take away from here.
And inspire us
to proclaim the Gospel without shame,
offer hope to others
and give glory to You in every word we speak and action we take.

We pray this through your Son,
Jesus Christ, Our Lord,
who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen

Dear Faithful Stewards:

As the Episcopal Moderator of the International Catholic Stewardship Council, it is a pleasure to welcome you to its 58th annual conference even though we have gone fully virtual. I look forward to “seeing” you sometime over the course of the two weeks and to live stream the celebration of the Eucharist on October 9, the last day of the conference.

In this year, marred by the COVID-19 pandemic, the emphasis on seeking a deeper spiritual encounter with Jesus Christ is indeed appropriate. How fitting that we also focus on the theme of hope, one of the great theological virtues. We give hope to others through our stewardship and evangelization efforts. We are ambassadors of Christ’s hope every day in the ordinary circumstances of our lives. We minister hope through acts of kindness and attentiveness.

During these days we convene together, even though we are in the midst of challenging times, let us be mindful to exercise stewardship of a shared wisdom, inspiration and the spiritual nourishment that will strengthen our resolve to share Christ and give hope to others.

Sincerely in the Lord,

Most Reverend Donald F. Hanchon
Auxiliary Bishop of Detroit
Episcopal Moderator of ICSC

Dear ICSC Participant,

“Dad, when are you going to your conference this year?”

My children know I love the ICSC Conference, and especially all of my friends and colleagues. Like pretty much everything else in this disrupted 2020, though, our conference looks different this year. But, like the boy with the barley loaves, we bring what we have available to our encounter with the Lord, and we trust Him to transform our meager offering into a bountiful feast.

You’ve made a good choice to join us. We are called to be stewards, especially in challenging times. Use the time of the conference well. Don’t limit yourself to the professional conferences, but take advantage of the spiritual and social opportunities. We’ll be praying the rosary together every day, and I hope to see you there. You can count on my prayers for you.

Someday, my grandchildren will ask me what I did during the “Pandemic of 2020.” Like you, I will be able to say, “I attended a global meeting of people who were passionate about serving the Church.” The reality of the pandemic does not change our mandate to go out and make disciples of all nations. Now is the time to evangelize!

I will see you in Cyberspace!

Gratefully,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Brian Niebrugge". The script is fluid and cursive.

Brian Niebrugge
Executive Director
Stewardship and the Annual Catholic Appeal
Archdiocese of St. Louis
ICSC Board Chair

P.S. Thank you for taking a chance on this new way of operating this year. Be sure to thank our partners for sticking with us as well.

Dear ICSC members, friends and colleagues,

Welcome to ICSC's 58th annual conference. I pray that your participation in this new virtual conference is a time of special grace; a time when you not only learn more about Christian stewardship, but are inspired by our gathering as disciples of the Lord.

Special thanks is owed to Rev. Charles Altermatt, pastor of St. Alfred Catholic Church in Taylor, Michigan, and his staff for giving us a home, a "command and control center" for this virtual conference and sacred space for prayer and worship. We are very grateful for the extraordinary hospitality they have extended to ICSC.

I also wish to offer my sincere gratitude to ICSC strategic partners and exhibitors who are with us at this time. To take this journey to share their wisdom and experience as manifested in their presentations, virtual booths and networking is also a great grace. I ask that you visit each and every one of the virtual booths to chat with them and get to know them. They are doing a great service to ICSC and the Church.

Allow me also to express my gratitude to all those individuals on the committees and working groups that made this conference possible, whether in the program planning, technical side, conference registrations or the prayers and liturgies. Many individuals had to "pivot" not once but twice to try and imagine a "hybrid" conference and then a full virtual conference, investing their own time to bring you a memorable experience. I extend that gratitude in earnest as well to the ICSC staff and volunteers for their hard work and dedication during these difficult times.

Please take advantage of as much of the conference as possible, meet new people, share new ideas and encourage others in their own stewardship journey. If there is anything we can do for you, please let us know.

Your brother in Christ,

Michael Murphy
Executive Director, ICSC

www.catholicstewardship.com/2020-conference/

You can download the mobile app from your smart phone (Whova – Event & Conference App). It is a free download. We recommend that you do both if you have access. A Whova App Attendee Guide is available and located on the ICSC Conference Site Home Page under RESOURCES that may be of interest to you. It is a quick way to learn your way around the conference site.

The app is email based. The email you used to register for the conference is required to login to the conference site. You will be able to view speaker presentations, visit virtual exhibit booths to chat with exhibitors or talk “face-to-face.” Networking with your peers is easy through the Community Board. You can create your own online profile to better identify yourself if you want. If at any time you have questions, please ask an ICSC Staff member located under RESOURCES, ICSC Staff. They will be pleased to answer your questions.

How to View a Speaker Presentation

Since the majority of our speaker sessions will be streaming live, we recommend you view them on the web app through a Chrome browser. If you do not have Google Chrome on your computer it is a simple download.

Remember the web app is found through the ICSC website at:

www.catholicstewardship.com/2020-conference/

Once you are logged into the conference site find the Agenda tab on the left side of your screen under MAIN NAVIGATION. Sessions are listed by date, and you can filter by track.

- From the list click the session you want to watch.
- There is a green camera icon for the sessions with streaming or video.
- If the streaming screen directly shows up, click “Proceed” to start watching the streaming. Otherwise click the “View livestream” button to open a separate streaming page to watch.

You can access the three tabs on the right hand side of the virtual session: Session Q&A, Chat, and Community. You can submit questions for the presenter through Session Q&A, participate in ongoing discussions with the other attendees viewing the session through Chat, and browse the Community Board function through Community.

How to Enter the Virtual Exhibit Hall

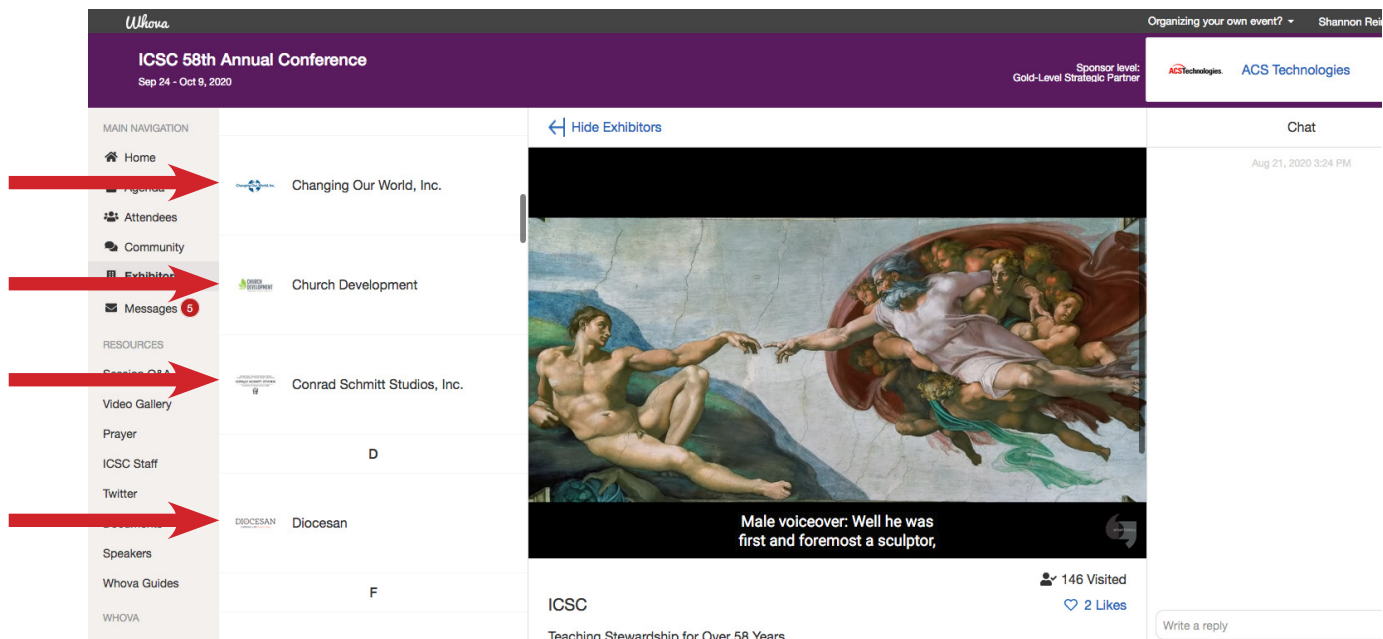

You are there!

All you have to do is click on Exhibitors. It's as easy as that.

The screenshot shows the Whova website for the ICSC 58th Annual Conference (Sep 24 - Oct 9, 2020). The left-hand navigation menu includes: Home, Agenda, Attendees, Community, Exhibitors (highlighted with a red arrow), Messages (5), Resources, Session Q&A, Video Gallery, Prayer, ICSC Staff, Twitter, Documents, and Speakers. The main content area features a banner for 'ENCOUNTER Meeting Jesus on Higher Ground. THE VIRTUAL CONFERENCE 2020' with dates 'September 28 - October 9, 2020'. Below the banner, text describes the conference's focus on stewardship and development. To the right, a 'Sponsors' section lists ACS Technologies, Blackbaud, Catholic Extension, and CCS Fundraising.

You will then see the full list of Exhibitors on your left. Simply click on the name of the Exhibitor you would like to see.

This screenshot shows the 'Exhibitors' page on the Whova website. The left-hand navigation menu is visible, with 'Exhibitors' highlighted by a red arrow. The main content area displays a list of exhibitors: Changing Our World, Inc., Church Development, Conrad Schmitt Studios, Inc., and Diocesan. A large video player is featured, showing a scene from Michelangelo's 'The Creation of Adam' with a male voiceover that says, 'Well he was first and foremost a sculptor,'. The video player includes a 'Hide Exhibitors' button and a 'Chat' button. Below the video, it shows '146 Visited' and '2 Likes'. The bottom of the page mentions 'ICSC Teaching Stewardship for Over 58 Years'.

You will be able to view their videos, click on their promotional offers, for example, coupons and raffles and "chat" with them; which is a texting feature. There also will be a live link you can click on and see the exhibitors on your computer screen and talk to them about their products and services. This is a scheduled feature that will show up on their exhibit booth so you know when to visit them next.

ICSC extends its gratitude to the following speakers for their gift of time and talent to this year's conference. Their sessions will provide informative, inspiring and creative presentations you won't want to miss!

Mary Mencarini Campbell, Executive Director

The bishops of the United States established national collections to support the Church's works of social justice, evangelization, and education, both domestically and around the globe. Through our parishes, every Catholic participates in a global community of faith. The national collections are a powerful expression of this community. Our contributions help people across the street and around the world, those who struggle to practice the faith and those who live in great need. Most national collections are assigned a national date, however, some (arch)dioceses elect alternate dates to avoid conflict with local activities and needs. Please check with your local (arch)diocesan staff for the timing of the following collections: Collection for the Church in Latin America, Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, The Catholic Relief Services Collection, Catholic Home Missions Appeal, Catholic Communication Campaign, Catholic Campaign for Human Development, Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa, and Peter's Pence.

To all those supporting dioceses, parishes, and religious orders around the world:

You have risen to an unprecedented challenge – with flexibility, courage, and faith.

Thank you.

Maintaining spiritual connections in the midst of COVID-19 by hosting virtual Mass and other services shows a deep commitment to your parishioners.

Thank you.

For millennia, communities of faith have played a critical role in providing and supporting social services. This is even more evident now as you minister to those affected by the pandemic.

Thank you.

In addition to providing spiritual support, you've strengthened access to food, health care, education, and shelter – often for the most underserved.

Thank you.

You've responded to acute community needs and to the call of Scripture: "For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me. ...Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." (Matthew 25:35-40)

All of us at GP Catholic Services are grateful to you.

BECAUSE VIBRANT
CHURCHES MATTER

A “Donate Now” Button Is Not Enough

You need an online donations provider that understands it takes consistent communication to your members to encourage them that their online contributions matter to your parish family.

How is LPI's Online Giving Different?

We provide our churches – absolutely free - the opportunity to participate in four seasonal campaigns featuring print and email communications that encourage people to contribute to their parish family.

Why Does That Make a Difference?

There are many reasons why people don't always give, but most of the time, it's not because they're unwilling, it's because most parishes don't regularly ask them to prayerfully consider contributing.

What Can Your Parish Expect?

The results speak for themselves...regularly communicating with parish members has helped the average parish increase their financial resources by 30% by increasing the number of new givers and donations.

AMEN GENEROSITY

A Fresh Framework for Inspiring Faithful Generosity

"Greater Mission presents this new breakthrough model to help parishes inspire renewed and new faith-filled offertory giving with an enthusiastic focus on parish ministry and mission. Our team has drawn from our depth of experience over many years and our study of many models to create this solution that is needed in our churches now more than ever. The message is fresh and the methods are proven. Our team will offer the extra benefit of virtual conference sessions each week to develop plans and advise on plan implementation in ways that are most helpful to each unique parish." Thomas Sonni, Founder and President

Focus on the "why" of giving faithfully and generously to the parish offertory. Use both/and logic — our need to give; and the Church's need to advance its mission, which each member shares.

Design an approach that can be renewed every year, eventually becoming integrated into the parish culture in a way that most everyone accepts the new norm. Meet people where they are, consistently building understanding, enthusiasm and participation.

Make Amen Generosity one part of a multi-pronged strategy to engage parishioners and develop a thriving parish that loves, welcomes, worships, serves and evangelizes. There is no one magic bullet to meeting the challenges we face as a Church today. It will take time, sacrifice, perseverance and trust. We are imperfect instruments, but it has been well demonstrated through history that our God is more than able.
