

PRINCIPAL
St. Anastasia Catholic School
Waukegan, Illinois

St. Anastasia School is seeking a passionate education and faith leader to continue its journey of excellence as it prepares to celebrate its centennial and the next 100 years. St. Anastasia is a beloved school populated with dedicated and caring faculty, staff, students, parents and benefactors eager to support a visionary and committed principal.

The school anticipates launching a strategic planning process in 2022/23 in order to incorporate the next principal's expertise, insight and wisdom.

Supported by Little Flower Parish (a merger of St. Anastasia and St. Dismas churches), the school is considered the parish's most important ministry. Parish and school personnel recognize that each student has a unique and dynamic relationship with God, and support the school's mission to understand the individual gifts of each child and help them develop spiritually, intellectually, physically and emotionally.
