

A Message from the ARCHBISHOP

Every year, the Annual Catholic Appeal brings the people of our archdiocese together as a family to share God's love with those who seek it, both giving and receiving His bountiful blessings. I want to thank each of you for your generosity to both our local Church and those in our family who are in need. Your support will enable us to impact more lives than ever before, so that thousands of our brothers and sisters will find hope and healing through the many ministries supported by the Appeal.

It brings me great joy to see us unite as one Church and embody Christ's compassion. God calls us to act as stewards for our family, Brothers and Sisters All, and your charitable gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal directly helps to carry out His work and serve the Lord with gladness.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Mitchell T. Rozanski

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

One Family ALL

Those who are in need of God's love are not strangers. They are family.

The parable of the lost sheep teaches us that if any individual in the flock is in peril, then our family cannot rest until our lost sheep is safe. Similarly, if anyone in the Good Shepherd's creation is in need, then our family is in need. If anyone is alone, then our family is in solitude. And if anyone aspires to overcome obstacles, then our family is in need of compassionate support. So let us come together as one Church to lift up any member of our family who seeks God's grace and mercy.

Let us dream, then, as one single human family, as fellow travelers sharing the same flesh...each of us with his or her own voice,
Brothers and Sisters All.

— POPE FRANCIS, FRATELLI TUTTI

For more than six decades, the Annual Catholic Appeal has brought our Church together in reaching out to our neighbors in need.

Whether they struggle under undue burdens and the weight of poverty, wish to pursue a Catholic education or vocation, or are isolated by the divisions in our communities, the Appeal provides a special opportunity to lift up those in need and ensure they can share in the unending blessings of our Heavenly Father.

God's love is everlasting, and through the Appeal, we can bring His love to anyone who seeks it. In giving, we are rewarded more than we could ever fathom.

UNITY

Now is the time to let Christ's love unite the communities throughout our archdiocese as one family, full of unending compassion and care for one another.

COMMUNITY

When we support the Appeal, we lift up those in our communities who seek to reach their aspirations, in turn improving all of our interconnected lives.

BENEVOLENCE
