Dear Amber,

As we embark on a new year, we first want to say thank you. We are so grateful for the ways you help continue the mission of Christ in the world today.

This time of resolutions is a perfect opportunity to think about the people, places and causes that matter most to you, then set up a plan that protects them. We have a resource to help.

The Diocese's Personal Estate Planning Kit walks you step by step through the process of organizing your estate, protecting your loved ones and securing your legacy. It's helpful on its own, but you can also use it to prepare for a meeting with an estate planning attorney or other professional advisor.

For Robert and Kitty Tunmire, it was important to leave a legacy that ensures the Catholic faith continues to flourish in the Diocese of Austin.

"If you've been blessed with economic gifts, then you want to leave a certain amount to things that you believe in, that will help those things live on," Robert says.

We are thankful for friends like you and the Tunmires for strengthening the Catholic faith and sharing our love of our neighbors by helping those in need. If you have any questions, please contact us.

Sincerely,

Dan Wierzbowski
