DIOCESE
of
AUSTIN

Dear <<First Name>>,

For many of us, the new year often inspires a long list of resolutions. We have a simple resolution to add — one that not only reflects your beliefs, but also helps you pay it forward for the next generation: including a gift in your estate plan to the Diocese of Austin, your parish, a Catholic school or Catholic Charities of Central Texas.

No matter the size of your gift, when you include the Diocese of Austin or one of its organizations and ministries in your estate plan, you create a legacy that:

- Reflects your Catholic faith and passes it on to the next generation.
- Secures the future of our diocese as we continue the mission of Christ in the world today.
- Makes a transformative impact that benefits future generations

To further simplify this process, we've partnered with FreeWill. This free, online will writing platform guides you through the process of creating your estate plan. FreeWill walks you through every step, including creating your legacy gift.

Create Your Estate Plan

As we continue to celebrate our diocese's 75th anniversary in 2023, I hope you'll take advantage of this opportunity to establish your legacy — and help pave the way for another 75 years of continuing the mission of Christ.

May you have a blessed and holy New Year!

Gratefully,
