WHO IS ICSC?

The International Catholic Stewardship Council (ICSC) is a professional member-organization recognized internationally as a source of education, networking, and information to advance the ministry of Christian stewardship as a way of life in the Roman Catholic Church, and to promote the cause of Catholic philanthropy in dioceses and parishes worldwide.

ICSC serves under the auspices of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops which assigns a Bishop-moderator to oversee ICSC's activities and serve as a liaison between the USCCB and ICSC.

Founded in 1962, ICSC's members consists of dioceses and archdioceses, Catholic foundations, parish communities, Catholic organizations, and professional firms serving the Catholic community.

ICSC ANNUAL CONFERENCES

Coming together as Catholic Professionals

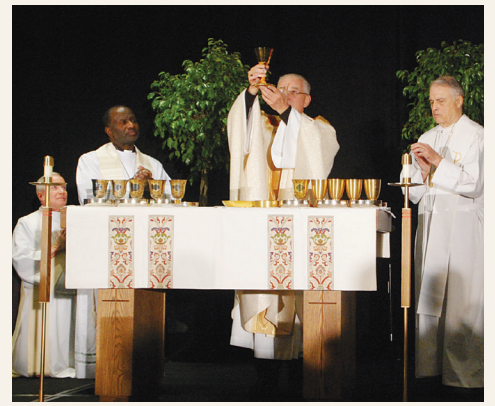

The annual ICSC conference is a special time of grace. It is a time where you not only learn more about Christian stewardship, but are inspired and spiritually nourished by the gathering, by sharing with one another and by celebrating the Eucharist as the high point of each day.

Engaging and knowledgeable speakers

Nearly 100 plenary speakers and session presenters give of themselves and share their experiences of stewardship and Catholic philanthropy at the annual conference. ICSC conferences always showcase insightful and engaging speakers as well as interesting and timely topics.

Being inspired and newly energized

Conference participants invariably speak of experiencing a renewed energy when they leave ICSC conferences. They go back to their dioceses and foundation offices and many members have shared that putting into practice what they've learned and experienced has borne much fruit.

NEW! "THE VESTIBULE:" A MONTHLY PARISH STEWARDSHIP NETWORK

The Vestibule is a gathering of parish stewardship leaders who will discuss topics of interest each month. This one-hour video format is designed for sharing best practices among parish leaders, including pastors, permanent deacons, business managers, parish pastoral council members, finance council members, and parish stewardship committee members.

ICSC Stewardship Days

Members have an opportunity to gather locally to share their successes and challenges, learning best practices from one another.

NEW FOR 2025: Clergy-to-Clergy

Resources and aids to help priests live, promote and preach stewardship as a way of life.

Strategic Partner and Exhibitor Networking

ICSC gives members an opportunity to connect with those whose ministries and professional services are designed to assist parishes.
